

Alternative and Emerging Species Workshop

Download the full proceedings

Presentations

Day 1

Soft-shell clam culture in Eastern Maine, USA – Kyle Pepperman, Aquaculture Production and Research Assistant, Down East Institute

Shellfish Aquaculture, Opportunities for Aquaculture Development – Steve Backman, President, Magellan Aqua Farms Inc.

Starfish: a new opportunity for mussel growers and a new source of innovative marine bioactive molecules – Patrice Dionne, CEO, InnoVactiv Inc.

Green sea urchin farming in eastern Canada: creating opportunity with advanced feed technology – Dr. Pat Gagnon, Associate Professor, Department of Ocean Sciences, MUN

Sea Vegetables: Are we there yet? – Steve Backman, President, Magellan Aqua Farms Inc.

Leasing policy and regulations for new species – Chris Mills, A/Chief, Aquaculture Leasing Division, DFO

Hatchery Seed supply for new species:

- Lennox Island Hatchery – Mike Randall
- L'étang Ruisseau Bar - André Mallet

Day 2

Potential use of mussels as feed supplements – Gerry Johnson, Halibut PEI

Alternative product development utilising mussel processing by-products – Lea Murphy, Prince Edward Aqua Farms

Thermal treatment of biomass to bioproducts: Focus on co-treatment of forestry and fishery residues – Anke Krutof, Ph.D. Candidate, MUN

Bio-Food-Tech, Opportunities for Product Development – Joy Shinn, Business Development Manager, Bio-Food-Tech

A Product Developer's Dilemma - Peter Crooks, Executive Director, Canada's Smartest Kitchen

Funding and Support for New Species & Product Development:

- Innovation PEI - Shane MacDougall, Director
- Agriculture and Fisheries – Aaron Ramsay, Shellfish Biologist
- Fisheries and Oceans Canada – Denise Lang, Manager, Atlantic Fisheries Fund
- NRC-IRAP – Tom O'Rourke, ITA